NORTH SIDE COMFORT CLUB

The North Side Comfort Club met with Mrs. Lucy Hamilton, of Twenty-first avenue. The usual business was transacted, after which an ice-course was served. Then Mrs. Robt. Goodall read a most instructive paper on Christianity. The guests of the club were Mesdames Price and Bailey. They adjourned to meet with Mrs. Joe Lawrence, of Edgehill street.

Out of Town Notes.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Dr. C. A. Ward, of Boston, Mass., was here last week. He preached in Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church at 11 o'clock Sunday to a large and appreciative congregation. Dr. Ward is the ex-pastor of said church and was warmly greeted by his many friends here. While here he was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Kelly. The Presbyterian Synod will convene here this week. A large delegation is expected. Rev. Collier is pushing the work on the new church and is expecting to open the Synod in the new building. Rev. Vanhorn Maury, of Alabama, son of the late Rev. Daniel Maury, is here as the guest of Mrs. Elsie Frierson. Prof. J. Thomas Caruthers is visiting his father-in-law and family, Mr. James B. Green. Mrs. Florence White has returned from Nashville. Rev. A. Brooks, pastor of St. Paul, was in Nashville last week. Prof. W. P. Irvin, of Nashville, spent the week end here with relatives. Rev. C. M. Smith, of Elizabethtown, Ky., filled the pulpit at First Baptist Church last Sunday, both morning and evening. Mrs. Nannie Embrey Mosely, of Birmingham, Ala., after a pleasant visit here as the guest of Mrs. Lucile Nicholson, has returned. Mrs. Laura Smith entertained Mrs. Mosely while in the city. Mrs. Emma Miller and Miss Bettie McKey entertained at dinner last Sunday in honor of Mrs. Nannie Mosely. Little Lucile Janie Mai Nicholson has been quite sick but is very much improved at this writing. Miss Maggie Green entertained last Saturday at luncheon in honor of Mrs. Mosely, of Birmingham. Mrs. Nannie Mosely visited the beautiful country home of Mr. Felix Webster and enjoyed her stay there. Mrs. Laura Brown and children have returned to their home in Nashville. Miss Eddie K. Johnson, of Iron City, spent the week end with her parents, Prof. and Mrs. R. G. Johnson. Mrs. Rankin Doyle has returned from Nashville, where she attended the entertainment given by her cousin, Mr. James Thomas, in honor of his mother, Mrs. Ada Danegfield, of Chester, Pa. It was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McCrady, 916 Shankland street. Miss Mary Sue Rainey is home for the winter. She has spent several months very pleasantly in Louisville, Ky.

MASON NOTES.

Mrs. M. E. Ruffin, the daughter-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Ruffin, who has been their guest for three or more weeks, has returned to Covington, where she will spend several weeks with her mother and relatives before returning home. The West Tennessee and West Kentucky Medical, Dental and Pharmaceutical Society held their 14th semi-annual session October 10th and 11th in Alexander Chapel M. E. Church, with Dr. E. D. Walker, of Union City, Tenn., presiding. The program was nicely arranged for each day and night. The execution of the program and the discussion of the different diseases and topics of the medical branch by the Negro doctors, dentists and pharmacists put the people of Mason, both white and colored, to thinking and wondering what will the Negro do in the next forty years, if he makes the progress he has made in the last forty years. On Wednesday during the session several persons came out to be treated by the doctors. In examining the clinics, one person was found to have pellagra the new disease. Several of the white physicians were called to view the case. Memphis was selected as the next place of meeting. Dr. E. D. Walker, of Union City, Tenn., was elected president for the next six months. Miss Beatrice Stewart was the guest of Mrs. Lucy Sydnor and Miss Nannie Burchett last Sunday afternoon. Miss Blanche Stevens, the great soprano singer, will give a grand musical recital Friday evening at the new St. Mark M. E. Church at 8 o'clock p. m. for the benefit of that church. Rev. P. H. Ruffin made a business trip to Covington last week. The preachers are arriving from Nashville, Tenn., where the annual conference of the M. E. Church convened. They report a great session. Rev. W. L. Woolridge, of Long Town, was in the city last Sunday. Misses Ester and Iola Fields and Mr. Hardy Ruffin were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Porter last Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The writer made a pleasant trip to Bluff City last week. Mrs. F. D. Ruffin has a felon on her middle finger of the right hand, and it has given her a great deal of trouble. It is improving. Dr. R. S. Fields was in Memphis last Sunday and returned Monday.

MOORESVILLE NOTES.

Rev. W. C. Hunt preached his farewell sermon at McKenzie Chapel last Sunday. Quite a large crowd was out to hear him. Those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Turner, from Farmington; Mr. Charley Bates, from Rich Creek; Mr. Frank Smith and Mr. Arthur Duncan, from Farmington; Miss Claudie Mai Davis, of Lewisburg, also Miss Mattie Huggins, of Culleoka. There is a deal of sickness in the community. Mrs. Bruce Wilkes and daughter, Cordelia are sick, also little Hughey Fitzpatrick. The public school at McKenzie is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. J. B. Jones. The school is preparing a program to be rendered soon. The McKenzie school enjoyed an able and interesting address delivered by Dr. C. O. Hunter, of Columbia, Tenn., last Friday afternoon. The K. P.'s of McKenzie had some work in conferring degrees upon candidates last Friday night. The "goat" must have been hard to handle, judging from the amount of hair found on the hall floor the next morning. Miss Claudie Mai Davis, of Lewisburg, was the guest of Miss Velina Fitzpatrick last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Charley Bates and Mr. Arthur Duncan were the guests of Prof. J. B. Jones last Sunday evening. The farmers here are quite busy gathering corn, picking cotton and sowing wheat. Some of the boys of the neighborhood went hunting last Saturday night and treed a tremendous "coon," so they say, and proposed to "sit up" with the monster till Sunday morning, but the boys fell into the arms of Morpheus and Mr. Reuben walked down and out and when the lads awoke they found that their captured prize had fled to parts unknown. The boys reached home in time for breakfast.

BRENTWOOD NOTES.

Mrs. Oscar Owens, the corresponding secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Richland Creek Missionary Baptist Association, went to Mt. Pleasant on the 12th to attend the quarterly meeting. She reports an enjoyable time. Rev. J. C. Crosby, pastor of Mt. Lebanon Missionary Baptist Church, has offered his resignation to the church and is no more pastor at that church. Quite a number from here attended the annual conference Sunday at Clark's Memorial M. E. Church. The Sunday-school banquet will be given at Brooks Chapel the 4th Friday night. The public is invited. Revs. S. M. Wright and D. L. Hunt, of Nashville, were out Sunday at the baptizing of Mt. Lebanon Church. Rev. Wash Samson, pastor of Fairfield Street Church, was here Sunday night.

WEST NASHVILLE NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, of Fortieth avenue, entertained the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Robinson, at dinner Sunday evening. A beautifully planned six o'clock dinner was served in three courses. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roland, of 607 Thirty-ninth avenue, entertained Mr. Wm. Kellogg, an ex-student of Fisk University, who spent the day in Nashville en route to his home in Atlanta, Ga., after spending a delightful summer in Chicago. Those present besides the honoree and family were Mr. A. W. Ray, of Fisk, and Mrs. Eddie Harris and son, Eddie, Jr. Mrs. Polly Hughley, of Fortieth avenue, who had a stroke, is improving. Rev. Dennis Brown preached quite an able sermon Sunday night at Clifton Pike A. M. E. Church. His text was "As the eagle stirs up her nest so will God his people." (Deut. 32:11.)

HARTSVILLE NOTES.

Rev. W. S. G. Brown preached a soul-stirring sermon on Sunday, October 15, at 11 o'clock. His text was found in Daniel 5:25. The house was crowded to its utmost. The day was a financial success. $28.60 was collected. Dr. G. L. Jackson, Jr., wife and Miss M. E. Luster made a flying trip to Gallatin on Thursday. Mrs. M. E. Brown came on a hurried trip for her little niece, Clara Lee Brown, who is to enter school in Nashville. Mr. and Mrs. Ward entertained at their home in honor of Misses Maymie Young, M. E. Luster and Clara Young. An ice-course was served. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harris have completed their beautiful residence on West Side Square. Dr. G. L. Jackson, Jr., is making a great success in the practice of medicine in our town. He and his wife are loved and esteemed by all.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

Miss Ethel Merrell entertained the Forget-me-not Club in a regular meeting Thursday afternoon. The meeting opened in the usual way by the president, Miss Mattie Otey. A full number of members were present, each answering to roll call with a quotation. After all business was transacted a literary program was rendered which was as follows: vocal solo, Mrs. Mary L. Hughes; debate, "Are Fathers Responsible for the Conduct of Their Children?" between Mrs. John A. Hughes and Miss Mattie Otey, affirmative, and Mrs. Harvey Ewing and Miss Alice Otey, negative; Mrs. John W. Reddick and Miss Carrie Otey were judges, who decided in favor of the affirmative. Closing chorus, For you I am praying. Miss Merrell presided at the piano. At the close of the program delightful refreshments were served. The meeting then adjourned to meet with Miss Mattie Otey, October 19th. Mrs. John A. Hughes spent a few days in Nashville last week. Mrs. W. D. Scott leaves Wednesday, October 18th, for Detroit, Mich. She will live with her nephew, Dr. Dan Tuppins, who has been here since Sunday seeing to business for her.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

News reached here last week of the serious illness of Mr. Cleveland Buchanan, son of Mr. Anderson Buchanan, a student of Tuskegee Institute, but later information gives assurance of him being on the mend. Mr. Ward Bowman was in town last week visiting his home people and friends. Mr. Ed. Branie, of Chicago, spent a few days in town last week visiting his people. He returned Saturday. A new pastor is now in charge at the M. E. Church since the meeting of the annual conference in Nashville. Many regret the removal of Rev. Rogers, the former pastor. Miss Sallie M. Jones-Downs, of Chicago, will appear at the Opera House this week in a grand piano recital. She comes as the guest of Turner Normal College. She leaves on Thursday for Tullahoma and points in East Tennessee, thence back through the states of Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and Illinois. Dr. Jones left this week for Chattanooga, where he went to attend the session of the East Tennessee Conference of the A. M. E. Church. He will return Monday and leave again next week for Nashville to attend the Tennessee Conference, of which body he is a member. Students are still coming in at Turner Normal, and Dr. Jones reports that quite a crowd is billed to come in the last of this month, and the first of November. The students of Turner Normal met last Friday night and re-organized the Turner Literary Society for the present year. The following officers elected: Mr. B. A. Jones, president; Miss Dora B. West, vice president; Miss Mattie Suggs, secretary; Miss Lela B. Porter, one of the teachers, was elected critic. Dr. J. Q. Johnson, of the A. M. E. Church, will preach his farewell sermon Sunday night. He leaves for conference at Nashville next Tuesday. The Children's Rally at the A. M. E. Church was a success. They raised $14 in their gleaners. Rev. F. W. Gardner, presiding elder of the Shelbyville District, is at home getting ready for the annual conference.

PULASKI NOTES.

Profs. A. T. Hill and T. P. Turner went to Nashville Saturday to attend the Endowment and Trustees' meetings of the K. of P., respectively. Both Boards were served with a delightful dinner at the Noon Lunch Cafe. Mrs. Willola Green, is visiting in Birmingham, Alabama, this week. Mrs. Sadie Rainey, of Birmingham, is visiting Mrs. Real Rhodes for a few days. Mr. Moore, the husband of Mrs. Lillian Gardner-Moore, is here this week. He came to spend a few days with his wife, who is staying with her mother, Mrs. Peter Gardner, until she (Elian) gets well. Mr. Wm. McKissack spent the day here Monday with home folks. Mr. McKissack is working at the National Baptist Publishing House at Nashville. Drs. W. A. Lewis, J. C. Gant and Messrs. N. N. Reynolds, Charley Harwell, Will Tears, C. Bramlette, John Abernathy, Mrs. Hannah Reynolds, Misses Lou Ellen Upshaw, Liola Frazier and many others here went to Birmingham Sunday to take advantage of the special rates. They all reported a nice time. The Ideal Art Club met last Wednesday at the residence of Miss Willie Harper and a delicious ice-course was served. The next meeting will be at the residence of Mrs. Annie Givens on West End. Rev. H. L. P. Jones left this week to look after his church work on his district. Mr. Fannon, a brother-in-law of Dr. H. L. P. Jones, left this week for his home in far west Seattle, Wash. Rev. G. R. Norman preached a soul-stirring sermon at Beulah Baptist Church last Sunday evening to a large audience. The Reverent preached like he is growing younger. His big rally for his dollar money will be held in Campbell's Chapel A. M. E. Church next Sunday afternoon.
